

Newsletter

2 September 2015

Survey summaries

Thank you for taking the time to complete our survey! We were very satisfied with the results and are working through all your recommendations and comments.

We have added the chart summarizing the results, to this newsletter for your perusal.

Solid stars...

Don't forget to audition for the Solid's Term End Talent Show (Gr 1 - 7). Auditions are happening during music lessons and cost R10 per entry. All funds raised are being used for the Grade 7 farewell. Show us what you've got!

Cake sales...

Don't forget the double cake sale tomorrow. Teacher Laura's class and Mrs Aitken's class will be hosting. Bring your change and enjoy the delicious day!

Casual day...

Friday, 4 September is Casual Day! All Gr 1 - Gr 7 pupils with a Casual Day sticker, are allowed to wear casual clothing. If you do not have a Casual Day Sticker, you can buy one from the office for R10. Mickey Mouse pupils are invited to wear fancy dress for their show on Friday 4 September.

Spring Day...

Spring Day will be celebrated on Monday 21 September. Pupils are invited to wear Spring coloured clothes on that day! ☺

Sing your own tune...

If you would still like to purchase your child's own recorder (R85) for school music lessons, please place your order by this week Friday. We are looking forward to hearing the cheerful tunes from our hall.

Theme for Mickey Mouse next week...

Let's go wild!

We're having an extra-awesome treat next week Friday with On-Cue theatre coming to put on their theatrical performance for us!

Prayerfully and playfully
The teachers

P.S. For Sale: 2 single beds, wood painted metallic silver with good sprung mattresses (up to 80kg). Can be made into bunk beds, ladder in wood finish. R2000 for the set. Contact Liz on 074 890 8647.

Summary of Parent Survey 2015

