Calling her home...

Teacher Daphne, who used to teach at our school many years ago, has gone to be with the Lord yesterday morning. Our love goes out to Teacher Debbie, her daughter, and all her loved ones who are mourning her passing, but celebrating a life well-lived.

School survey 2019...

It's time for you to help us budget, change policies and plan for 2020! This is YOUR moment to make a difference in Solid Foundations. Please will you click on this link below...

...which will lead you to our 2019 survey. This should take no more than 20 minutes to complete. Please note that we take these annual surveys very seriously and really use your votes to guide our school planning. There is nothing more precious than your child, so please take the time to pause and give your opinion to the people you are trusting with your child!

Three weeks' countdown to our Science Fair...

Don't forget that we are rapidly approaching our first ever Solids' Fun Science Fair. Our pupils (Grade 4-7) have three weeks to polish up those presentations for our judges. We are really excited about the day!

A wheelie special day...

Our pre-schoolers are having "bicycle day" NEXT WEEK FRIDAY (26 July) at school. We would like to give you enough notice, so that you can ensure your child has a helmet and something with wheels (e.g. a bicycle, tricycle, scooter, skateboard etc.) for the day.

Coming and going...

We are running admissions testing this week Saturday for all outside pupils who would like to attend Solids in 2020. It really helps if we know exactly how many spaces we have available to award to the top achievers in these tests. If you are planning on leaving us next year, please could you let us know so that we can allocate your space to another desperate family. Thank you!

Running a tight ship...

A reminder that we start at 7h30 every day, and that we have a healthy lunch policy at our school. If you are late or your child has crisps and sweets in their bag, you are promoting poor respect for our school rules and poor life values for your child! Self-discipline is a virtue of every successful businessman and sportswoman, so let's start young!

Preschool reading and vocabulary programme...

Book-bags and words will go out again on Friday. Remember to give us feedback about the condition of the books...
