28 May 2024 - EARLY EDITION DUE TO VOTER'S DAY

Preschool feedback...

We appreciated the effort you put into dressing up your children for our Shopping Day last Friday. It was a precious morning, and it goes to show that shopping is a natural instinct from 3 years upwards 😊! Thank you for helping us to make magic.

Cake sales...

Grade 2M and the Grade 4s (both classes) are hosting cake sales on Friday. The cake sales are aimed for Grade 1-7 pupils, but the preschoolers might have the opportunity to buy leftovers if there are any.

Adding a smile...

On-Cue Theatre are coming on Thursday to perform for our Grade 1-7 pupils (two separate full theatrical shows).

And for more messy fun, our preschoolers will be having "Art Attack" day on Friday, and will be given unique art opportunities to bring out their inner Picasso and Monet. Please make sure that they have a paint shirt (old grown-ups shirt) for the occasion.

I love books...

To encourage and instill a love of reading, our school invites Diskonto books to host a book sale at our school every year. This way, books are seen as precious treats and gifts to be treasured. Start saving towards this spoil...

Term 2 charity drive...

Don't forget that Kaeden's Grove (a dog rescue organisation) will be visiting our school next week Friday. If your child would like to wear civvies on this day (7th of June), please remember to bring a can or packet of pet food.

Reading programme and pizza reminder...

Remember to return your bookbag on Thursday morning. Please report badly damaged books to us on:
