

Dear Parents

It is with sadness that we announce the passing of our school founder and principal for 43 years (1972-2015), Emmy Bradshaw.

Emmy went to be with Jesus on Saturday evening surrounded by family, after a 5-year fight with cancer.

In honour of this incredible woman, school will be closed at 11h20 on Friday to accommodate any staff and pupils who would like to attend her memorial service. The memorial service will be held at Maranatha Community Church at 12h00 on Friday afternoon.

We will make the school bus available for any senior pupils who wish to attend but are unable to arrange their own transport. This will be on a first-come-first-served basis. Please give your name in the office.

Please RSVP to the school office or to Mrs Helmbold directly if you will be attending the memorial. (Kindly do not use her telephone number for any other purpose at this time other than to RSVP).

We are so grateful for a life well-lived, and know that Emmy's legacy will live on in the countless pupils' lives she's touched, as well as in the joy and ethos of Solid Foundations.

Mrs Helmbold wishes to express her thanks for all the messages and love she received on the passing of her father the weekend before last, and is very grateful for the second outpouring of love with the passing of her mother this past weekend. Her family finds deep comfort in their faith in Jesus and God's nearness at this time.

The poster features a portrait of Emmy Bradshaw on the right, smiling. The background on the left shows a windmill at sunset.
